Sugarloaf Ridge State Park is operated by the Sonoma Ecology Center and Team Sugarloaf in partnership with California State Parks. We receive no direct State funding for park operations.

SUGARLOAF RIDGE STATE PARK offers 43 developed family campsites, a group camp, picnic sites, and trails. The mountain terrain of the 4900-acre park has elevations from 600 to 2729 feet. The camp and picnic sites are set in a large valley with a meadow and stream at 1200 feet. Favorite activities include camping, resting, hiking, nature exploration and biking. 36 sites are reservable, and 7 first-come, first-serve.

CAMPSITES must be paid for in advance. To hold a campsite you must reserve it or occupy it. To prevent encroachment on others, the limits of each campsite may be regulated by park staff. Camping fees cover one vehicle per campsite. Additional fees of $10 will be charged for more than one vehicle. Check-in time is 2 p.m. Check-out time is 12 p.m.

DEAD AND DOWN WOOD is part of the natural environment. Decayed vegetation forms humus, which assists the growth of trees and other plants. For this reason the gathering of down wood is prohibited (When considered a hazard, down wood is removed by park personnel).

FIREWOOD is sold in the park for your convenience at the Visitor Center or with the Camp Hosts. Please do not cut any bushes, trees or tables for firewood.

FIRES: To prevent wildfires, fires are permitted only in facilities provided for this purpose. Portable stoves may be used in designated areas. Fires must be attended at all times and completely extinguished before you vacate your campsite.

HORSEBACK RIDING: Within the oak woodland and chaparral, the park has 25 miles of trails for hiking and horseback riding. You may bring your own horse. Jack London State Historic Park (9 miles away in Glen Ellen) has a concession: Triple Creek Outfitters (707) 887-8700.
